On Wednesday two of our most popular young people will drive to Harrodsburg and have their destinies united. May their pathway through life be strewn with Roses and Morse never grow under their feet.

Number 363 drew the splendid sewing machine James Frye gave away and Mrs. W. C. Greening and Miss Lou Hocker both guessed that the gourd contained that number of seeds. So they own the machine jointly for the present.

Mr. C. L. Holmes, who had rather stop at the Weatherford House than the famous Waldorf-Astoria in New York, "Sundayed" there as usual. He is entitled to the distinction of being the most popular drummer on the road and he may also be said to be a most excellent judge of hotels.

C. B. Reid went to Louisville Sun-Great Clearing Sale day. Mrs. J. W. Allen is some better. H. C. Campitz is convalescing. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reid have both been sick, but are improving. Mrs. Mary J. Weatherford is ill. Mrs. J. W. Lockridge is suffering from an attack of quinzy. D. S. Carpenter is threatened with grip.

Arthur Jones, our clever and efficient town marshal, will be married Wednesday to Miss Celestia, the pretty daugh-WINTER : GARMENTS ter of Mr. John Burton. Both are popular young people and their hosts of friends wish them many years of happiness. Mrs. Kate Clements, of Marion, sister of Mr. Jones, came up to attend the marriage, but was called home by the illness of a relative.

George Dinwiddie has a position as drummer for the Rankin-Snyder Hardware Co. Mrs. Alice Lusk has gone to Baltimore to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. C. McAfee. Miss Dot Camnitz is the guest of relatives in Louisville. Arthur Carpenter, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to his home in Covington. Misses Lou Hocker and Anna Reid leave in a few days for Nashville to visit Miss Jesse D. Louisville, - Kentucky, Cook. Little Allen Ray Evans, who has been threatened with pneumonia, edy. A motto with 1900 extended across the entrance, caught with scarlet ribbons and sprays of mistletoe, while from a cozy corner in the hall the piano pealed forth enthusing music, rendered by a special artist engaged for the occasion. Those who assisted the host and hostess in receiving were Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hocker, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Carpenter. Promptly at 8 o'clock the guests began to arrive, all clad in fantastic array, some in old, some in new, some in red and some in blue. Here was Pocohontas, with her bow and arrow after the Mexican Warrior; Buffalo Bill with his bowie knife after Maud Muller with her rake, who was hunting her Judge; America with Mrs. Dewey and the stars and stripes; Li Hung Chang with his lady from Japan, and the Two-Faced Frank J. Promptly at 11 o'clock an elegant lunch was served in the dining room, which was profusely decorated with evergreens. A large motto with 1900, on scarlet back ground, framed with a garland of holly, decorated the mantel, while suspended from the chandelier were profuse sprays of holly and myrtle. From the center was caught ropes of searlet ribbon drawn to the four corners of the table and finished with bows of ribbon and sprays of mistletoe which was very effective When all guests were seated the host gave the room several nights ago, but was only signal to unmask, which caused much surprise and merriment. The host then in his usual witty way delivered a toast appropriate to the occasion. Little induced by the company to keep it for Rose Duan Sandidge in a fairy like manner distributed the "Fin de Seicle" souvenir cards.
